Tour Sturgeon Bay

Door County Maritime Museum—Sturgeon Bay

Located along Sturgeon Bay’s working waterfront, the Door County Maritime Museum showcases the area’s rich maritime roots. Hard-working anglers, brave ship captains and lonely lighthouse keepers are some of the personalities you’ll discover in the galleries of the Museum...Where Great Lakes maritime history comes alive!

The new Jim Kress Maritime Lighthouse Tower features ten floors of interactive educational exhibits that highlight maritime history, people and industries, and provides accessibility to a lighthouse experience that will accommodate everyone regardless of physical abilities.

The museum is open daily, year-round.

Tug John Purves Tour—Sturgeon Bay

Add the tugboat John Purves to your Sturgeon Bay visit and enjoy an additional one-hour, docent-guided tour. Built in 1919 as the Butterfield, the John Purves has been painstakingly restored and outfitted. Explore the entire 149-foot tug, from engine room to crew cabins, galley and wheelhouse, and get a feel for the daily life of her hard-working 13-man crew.

Open May 1 - October 31.

Tour Gills Rock & Cana Island

Death’s Door Maritime Museum — Gills Rock

The Death’s Door Maritime Museum celebrates the area’s commercial fishing tradition. Located in the village of Gills Rock at the tip of the Door County peninsula on the shores of Porte des Mortes (Death’s Door), the museum features a shipwreck and scuba diving exhibit, artifacts from the bottom of Lake Michigan, and the wooden fishing tug Hope. Open daily May 1 - October 31.

12724 West Wisconsin Bay Road, Ellison Bay

Cana Island Lighthouse — Baileys Harbor

Explore Door County’s most iconic lighthouse, standing watch on the shores of Lake Michigan for over 150 years. Ride a hay-wagon over the causeway to explore the island, including the 89-foot-tall light tower, oil storage house and lighthouse keeper’s home. Climb the 97 steps of the tower’s spiral staircase to enjoy the sweeping panoramic view of Lake Michigan and the Door County peninsula. Open daily May 1 - October 31.
